(d) A weekly report of the progress of the committee will be presented by the chair at the General Senate Meetings.

Section 2.04 Senate Review Committee

(a) The Senate Review Committee shall be considered a “special committee”. The Vice President will create the Senate Review Committee, and once their work is complete the Vice President will dismiss the Senate Review Committee.
(b) The Senate Review committee is comprised of four senators. Members of the Senate Review committee are elected by the senate.

(c) The Senate Review Committee shall address standing issues brought forth by members of The Senate, or The Association, make reasonable resolution in coordination with the other standing officers, and inform The Senate.

Article III. Senator Appointments

Section 3.01 Individuals must meet the requirements and responsibilities of the Senators as stated in the Constitution of the Association. The President and Chief Administrative Officer will verify all individuals meet the requirements.

Section 3.02 Individuals will be appointed to serve as a Senator once they have attended 2 consecutive required meetings. At the next regular meeting of the Senate the individual will be appointed to the appropriate Senator status.

(a) At the beginning of each semester, returning senators who have made the GPA requirements, and have attended (or been excused from) the first Senate Meeting, will be considered the standing Senate for the following semester.

Section 3.03 All Senators and Officers must read and understand the SGA Code of Ethics included in Appendix A of this document. Each Senator and Officer must understand that failure to abide by this code of ethics will result in an automatic referral of the situation to the Officers. Accepting a position as a Senator or Officer is an ipso facto acceptance of this Code of Ethics and agreement to abide by its conditions.

Article IV. Officer Elections

Section 4.01 Regular elections

(a) Will occur in conjunction with the University’s “Joint Elections” timeline in the Spring semester, for the following academic year.

(b) Election of Officers will be by The Association at large, and by the means set forth by the Senate.

(c) Officer training/transition will occur immediately following the election, and the officers elect will officially begin their term at the last regular senate meeting of the spring semester.

Section 4.02  Vacancy of office/Special elections

(a) In the event that an officer relinquishes or is relieved of their position the Senate has the authority to appoint an interim officer to fill the position until a special election can be held. If a vacancy occurs after the 7th week of the spring semester, the interim officer may remain in office for the remainder of the academic term.

(b) Special Election:

(i) Nomination and election will be held by The Association at the earliest opportunity. The Association will receive notification of at least one week of the special election.

(ii) To be eligible to run for an officer position, an individual must meet the requirements as set in Article VI of the Constitution of the Association

Article V.  Director selection

Section 5.01  Immediately following Officer Elections, the Vice President and Vice President Elect, will begin the selection of Committee Directors.

Section 5.02  The term of appointment will be for one academic year (fall to spring).

Section 5.03  To be eligible to serve as a Committee Director, the student must have served as a UConn Stamford Senator for one academic semester, maintain a minimum GPA of 2.5 (current semester and cumulative), and complete an application by the deadline set by the Senate.

Section 5.04  The Vice President will announce the Director appointments and will be confirmed by the Senate.

Section 5.05  If any Director relinquishes or is relieved of their position and interim Director will be appointed using the same process as described above.

Article VI.  Officer and Director Removal

Section 6.01  To remove officer or director from their position the individual must have:

(a) Exhibited behavioral misconduct unbecoming of a leader, including but not limited to violations of the Student Code of the University of Connecticut, or

(b) Repeated failure to complete duties or responsibilities of positions, or
(c) Failure to maintain minimum standards for membership in the Senate.

Section 6.02 The process to remove an office or director from their position is:

(a) A motion to investigate the alleged violation is brought to the Senate, and approved by a 1/3 vote.
(b) If the vote to investigate is approved, a committee is immediately formed to investigate the alleged violation. The committee is appointed by the President, or Vice President if the allegation is against the President. The committee appointments are confirmed by a vote of the senate.
(c) The committee has one week to investigate the allegations, and report back to the senate their findings.
(d) The senate hears the findings of the committee, and the Officer or Director in question has an opportunity to respond. A motion to remove the Officer or Director is made to the Senate, and a secret ballot vote is taken. The motion passes with a 2/3 majority.

Article VII. Meetings

Section 7.01 Meetings will be held once a week during the fall and spring semesters that UConn classes are in session.

Section 7.02 A special meeting of the Senate will be called at the request of any Senator within 48 hours notice to the Association. Quorum must be met for any official business to be conducted. Minutes of the special meeting will be posted within 48 hours of the conclusion of the meeting.

Section 7.03 The format of the meetings will be as follows:

(a) The President will call the meeting to order;
(b) Attendance will be taken and minutes will be approved as read, or amended, by the Senate and subsequently approved;
(c) Officer reports will be given
(d) Advisor will give a report
(e) Committee reports will be given
(f) Old business will be discussed;
(g) New business will be discussed;
(h) Open forum;
(i) The meeting will adjourn;
Section 7.04 Meeting procedures shall reflect guidelines set forth in Robert’s Rules of Order. The President may only vote in case of a tie, or when their vote would result in a tie (in order to defeat a motion.)

Article VIII. Senate Voting

Section 8.01 A super majority of The Voting Senate (one-half plus one) is required to constitute a quorum.
Section 8.02 Each Member of the voting Senate is entitled to one vote. Each member of the Non-voting senate is not entitled to a vote.
Section 8.03 A vote will be conducted by secret ballot at the request of any member.
Section 8.04 Absentee votes may be accepted provided they are cast within 24 hours of the vote and can be confirmed by the Senate.
Section 8.05 Votes requiring a simple majority approval shall be conducted by voice vote, if the outcome is not clear a show of hands will suffice.
Section 8.06 The Senate shall have the power to grant one vote to any outside individual or representative of a group when a vote held by the Senate will affect that individual or group.
Section 8.07 In the case that a Member of the Senate disagrees with the voting majority, he or she may, within 48 hours of the meeting, provide the Chief Administrative Officer with a written dissenting opinion outlining their concerns and disagreement with the decision; if received within this time period, the text of this dissenting opinion must be included with the minutes of that meeting as an appendix for further reference. This must be included in addition to any comments that the senator made during discussion that were included in the minutes.

Article IX. Attendance

Section 9.01 Members of the Senate who miss any two required meetings in any one semester without being excused by the Chief Administrative Officer shall be notified, and in the case of an additional unexcused absence, the senator will be resigned from the senate at the next regular meeting.
Article X. Catch all Clause

Section 10.01 Any situation or rules not covered in these Bylaws, the Constitution, or Robert’s Rules of Order shall be dealt with fairly and justly by the Senate whenever these issues arise.

Article XI. Amendments

Section 11.01 A request for a change in the Bylaws can be made by anyone.
Section 11.02 Any changes in the Bylaws must:
(a) Be passed by a two-thirds favorable vote of the Senate; and
(b) Then be posted to the student body for five consecutive days.
Section 11.03 When the Constitution and By-Laws committee is established it must consist of at least two members of The Senate, and instated by The President
Section 11.04 The above mentioned members must consist of an Officer and a Senator.

Article XII. Acceptance of the Bylaws

Section 12.01 These Bylaws shall be in force and in effect immediately upon their ratification and approval by the Senate.
Section 12.02 These Bylaws can in no way infringe or usurp the rules and powers that are set forth in the present and acknowledged Constitution governing the actions of the Student Government Association of the Stamford Campus of the University of Connecticut.
Section 12.03 During the first month of each semester, these bylaws must be reviewed in full by the standing Senate and officers, and any proposed revisions must be considered and discussed during a Regular meeting of the SGA, especially the amounts of money set aside for certain purposes.

Article XIII. Responsible Spending of SGA Funds and Funding of Registered Student Organizations
Section 13.01  During the first 8 weeks of each semester, one third of the SGA budget must be reserved for the funding of registered student organizations.

(a) In order for a group to be eligible for funding, they must be a registered student organization with the Stamford student activities office.
(b) The Registered Student Organization must present an itemized budget with estimated expenses and the number of participants to the finance committee.
(c) The SGA has the power to reduce or increase the amount of funding that is requested before voting on a budget as the SGA sees fit. After the 8-week point, the SGA cannot guarantee that any club will receive funding and all reserved money will be available to the SGA for normal use.

Section 13.02  In order for a committee to spend funds other than as allocated, The Senate must approve of the re-allocation.

Section 13.03  Under no conditions are ex post facto allocations guaranteed to be approved by The Senate.
APPENDIX A

SGA CODE OF ETHICS

Article I Responsibilities to the Students of the University of Connecticut’s Stamford Campus
1) I will serve as a liaison between the students of the University and its Administrative Staff
2) I will consider every action I take on behalf of the SGA and while acting as its representative and think about how these actions reflect on the University and how these actions affect the Students. I will take into account the best interests of the students and base my actions on these interests in order to help to provide the most positive and effective experience for each and every student.
3) I will seek to provide equal opportunities for all students regardless of race, gender, age, nationality, religion, or sexual orientation
4) I will work consciously to uphold the SGA Statement of Purpose as described in the Constitution of the organization.
5) I will frequently poll my constituents, whether formally or informally, on the general needs and concerns regarding the University and the educational experience of the Students, and actively work to keep them informed about the various issues affecting them.

Article II Responsibilities to the Student Government Association of the University Of Connecticut’s Stamford Campus
1) I will work to promote a positive image of the SGA, encouraging unity and cooperation.
2) I will present myself at University and SGA meetings and functions, or at any meeting or function at or in which I appear as a representative of the University or SGA, in a professional manner of physical appearance and mental preparedness, and I will strive to follow the principles of parliamentary procedure as defined by Robert’s Rules of Order.
3) I will make decisions that affect the SGA only after all facts bearing on a question have been presented and discussed.
4) I will respect the opinions of others and will graciously accept the principle of “majority rule.”
5) As a representative of the University Of Connecticut’s Stamford Campus, the SGA of the University Of Connecticut’s Stamford Campus, and the University Of Connecticut as a whole, I will act in a trustful manner and honor all agreements, obligations, and promises I make.

6) I will use the SGA office and other resources as necessary to fulfill my obligations and duties as an SGA member. I will not abuse the SGA office or SGA resources, nor will I take resources for personal use in a way that is detrimental to the goal and purpose of the SGA.

Article III Responsibilities to Myself as a Member of the Student Government Association of the University Of Connecticut’s Stamford Campus

1) I will take advantage of all opportunities and experiences for improvement, making a great effort to understand my duties and enhance my knowledge, leadership skills, and representation of the student body.

2) I will respect and follow the SGA Constitution, By-Laws, and Code of Ethics

3) I will remember that I am a student first and as such I will fulfill my responsibility in the classroom seriously and strive to achieve academic excellence.
