Joint Election

Elections for the next academic year will occur on March 1st, 2022, at noon and end on March 3rd at noon. All leadership positions including President, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Administrative Officer will be open. This election will also include voting for the Student Trustee.

- According to the UConn website, (<https://boardoftrustees.uconn.edu/>), The Board of Trustees has jurisdiction over UConn, including all its colleges and other units, and has a responsibility to serve UConn by making the best possible decisions regarding the University as a whole. The Board of Trustees' main responsibilities are to elect UConn's president, adopt an annual financial plan of operation, enhance student life, and establish degrees to be awarded.
- The board is made up of 21 members, two students- one undergraduate (Current- Noah Frank) and one graduate (Current- Justin Fang). Twelve members are appointed by the Governor; two elected by alumni; two elected by students. The Governor is a member of the board and heads of departments including the UConn Health Board of Directors Chair, and the Commissioners of Agriculture, Economic and Community Development, and Education. The one undergraduate that sits on the board is the Student Trustee will be voted upon in the joint election.
